Frank Del Barto's employment and labor practice focuses on advising clients on a variety of employee benefits plans, as well as helping to resolve employee relations issues. As a member of the Business Group, he drafts and reviews general corporate matters.

Mr. Del Barto is admitted to practice in Illinois. He is a 1987 graduate of The Virginia Military Institute and obtained his J.D. from The John Marshall Law School in 2007. During his J.D. studies, Mr. Del Barto simultaneously completed an LL.M., with honors, in Employee Benefits Law. In 2006, he served as president of the Employee Benefits Student Law Association and completed an externship with the Internal Revenue Service, Office of Chief Counsel, working on qualified plan issues. In addition, Mr. Del Barto is a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association, and the International Foundation of Certified Employee Benefits Specialists.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Del Barto spent fourteen years in the insurance industry, working with clients ranging in size from the two-person representative office up to and including several Fortune 500 companies and prominent universities. His work focused on the design, funding, and implementation of employee benefits plans. Before entering the insurance industry, Mr. Del Barto served as an officer in the U.S. Army as an Airborne Ranger.
