Mitchell W. Pollard, an associate of Masuda, Funai, Eifert & Mitchell Ltd., has been formally admitted to practice law in the State of Michigan. Specializing in commercial real estate, Mitchell has built a robust practice focusing on the purchase, sale, and lease of commercial properties. His expertise extends to reviewing and drafting critical documents, such as purchase and sale agreements, construction contracts, leases, and financing documentation. Mitchell's comprehensive approach includes assisting clients with site selection, acquisition, due diligence, title and survey examination, entitlement issues, property development, and new construction.

"We are pleased to have Mitchell expand his practice into Michigan," said George Kobayashi, President of Masuda Funai. "His extensive experience in real estate law, combined with his new licensure in Michigan, will significantly enhance our ability to meet the needs of our clients in this vital market. We are excited to see Mitchell continue to excel and contribute to our firm's growth."
