Joon Park represents international manufacturers, importers, distributors, and providers of goods and services throughout the U.S. on their commercial operations. In addition to his many years of litigation experience, he drafts, reviews, and negotiates a wide variety of complex commercial agreements, including sales and distribution contracts, NDA's, SaaS and licensing agreements, vendor contracts, service level agreements, and statements of work. Joon makes a point of understanding the objectives of his clients to efficiently execute transactions that incorporate their strategic vision, business practices, and profitability goals, and achieve the results they require to succeed.

Joon advises clients regarding their commercial and contractual needs, and assists clients in complying with applicable state, federal and local laws and regulations. In addition, Joon is involved in dispute resolution, including drafting and negotiating complex settlement agreements.

Valued for his reliable and steady approach to communication and problem-solving, Joon partners with his clients to create legal strategies that support tangible business goals. He brings depth and breadth to his practice, having previously been in private practice, government, and various in-house counsel roles.
